WILL MOREHEAD DROP THE REINS

Reported he Will Resign State Chairmanship.

TO OUST BUTLER.

Republican State Executive Committee Meets Here This Afternoon—Rumored That Morehead Will Step Down—State Chairman Arrived Last Night and Was Closeted With Prominent Republicans Until Early This Morning—Purpose of Meeting to Consider Pie Also.

What is the meaning of the called meeting of the Republican State Executive Committee to be held in the McAdoo Hotel this afternoon at 2 o'clock, is a question that is puzzling local Republicans no little, and the members of the committee who are not "inside" from all parts of the State as well. This meeting was called on December 20, the day before Congress adjourned, and the call did not explain the matters to be considered.

Local Republicans are of the opinion that Congressman Morehead, who it seems cannot control the North Carolina division of the national pie counter, has decided to drop the reins and hand in his resignation as State chairman at today's meeting, the meeting being solely for this purpose. Others say he will do nothing of the sort, but the meeting is merely for the purpose of discussing and mapping out the work for the next campaign, which, by the way, does not begin for some eighteen months.

Chairman Morehead arrived last night from Spray and is stopping at the McAdoo, or rather he registered there. He left shortly after supper last night and had not returned to his room early this morning, presumably being closeted with other Republicans of State prominence. Among the others who arrived last night were District Attorney Holton, of Winston, who is always on hand when there is going to be something doing in the upper ranks of the party; Thomas Settle, Esq., of Asheville, one of Morehead's right hand men in the campaign just past; George H. Brown, of Statesville, and possibly others of equal prominence.

District Attorney Holton was asked as to the nature of the meeting, but it was plain that he knew nothing of its nature. He said he had simply been notified that the meeting would be held, although he is not a member of the committee, and he deemed it important that he be on hand as one of the political advisors. He added that he supposed it was for the purpose of mapping out the next campaign; that Chairman Morehead had stated the day after the election that he would call the committee together about Christmas and map out the work, beginning the campaign the first of the year. Then by way of parenthesis Mr. Holton added that Mr. Morehead had also said that he was going to get the committee together and if the members would not get down to hard work then he was going to quit.

However, there are strong reasons for Mr. Morehead's resignation and if he insists the committee cannot do otherwise than to accept it. In this event the next scramble will be over this office, for it is believed that the right man behind the counter could control the pie is a highly satisfactory manner. It is believed in case Mr. Morehead resigns that some man not identified with either the Morehead or the Duncan faction will be selected in an effort to bring together the widely several factions of the party in the State. Neither will the man be one of the Marion Butler persuasion.

There is also a rumor that the meeting will be for the purpose of ousting Butler from the councils of the party and an attempt to reconcile the warring factions represented by Morehead and Duncan. The majority of the committee are Morehead's friends, but Duncan has a strong following also. The fact that Morehead some days ago withdrew his opposition to the appointment of Postmaster Briggs, of Raleigh, Duncan's man, adds strength to the theory that efforts are to be made to effect a reconciliation between the two elements. It is a safe assertion that before the committee's deliberations are over the domination and influence of Butler over the committee will be at an end, whether Morehead remains at the helm or not.

It has been rumored by prominent Republicans that since his overwhelming defeat on November 8 Morehead has been sick of his job as Chairman and especially of his alliance with Butler. This latter fact was well known long before the campaign closed, but as Butler had assisted him in landing the State chairmanship and as he was getting much of the campaign boodle he was not in a position to tell him to "ring off" even though Butler would have heeded his command. Now, however, while all of the more decent element of the party are rejoicing at the rebuke administered to the chairman for his alliance, he sees that the best time to get rid of the Sampson Fox is before the next campaign begins and then he cannot lay claim for any assistance rendered during even the earliest days of the campaign. It is also reported that President Taft has not grown any fonder of the chairman since his dismal failure in reclaiming the State and he hopes by shaking off the odium of Butlerism, which is attributed by Republicans generally as the chief cause of the downfall, to regain some of the chief executive's lost confidence and thus become a more adept pie handler in the closing days of his Congressional life.

The above suggestions as to the probable object of the meeting are only rumors and but few will know why the meeting was called until the secret session has begun, many will not known until afterwards and it is doubtful whether any facts as to the real nature of the business considered can be gathered from the members after they have adjourned sine die. But it could not be a Republican meeting unless "Pie" was considered.

THREE KILLED IN WRECK

Three Others Probably Fatally Injured —Two Freights Collide.

Parkersburg, W. Va., Dec. 27.—Three trainmen were killed and three others injured, one of them probably fatally, in a collision of two freights on the Ohio river division of the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad at Mercers Bottom, W. Va., early today.

The dead:

William Steefey, Parkersburg, engineer.

C. J. Moffatt, Huntington, brakeman.

R. H. Bradhaw, Parkersburg, fireman.

The injured:

R. H. Kantz, Mason City, fireman, may die.

J. B. McEllen, Parkersburg, engineer.

J. F. Lovatt, New Martinsville, brakeman.

It is said that the crew of one of the trains made a mistake in reading its orders and that this was the cause of the accident.

Hebrew Feast of Lights.

While Christians were celebrating Christmas Sunday, members of the Hebrew faith, started the Chanuka, or Feast of Lights, which lasts for eight days. In every Orthodox Jewish home in the city a wax taper was lighted Sunday night to commemorate the rededication of the Holy Temple, more than 2,000 years ago. At that time the Maccabeans rebelled against the tyrannical rule of the Syrian king, Antiochus V., who attempted to replace the Hebrew religion by Greek worship. Monday evening two candles were lighted, last night three were lighted, and each night another one will be added until the entire eight are burning.

Salvation Army Entertainment.

Last evening at the Salvation Army hall on South Elm street, the children of the Sunday school gave their Christmas entertainment. There was an appropriate program by the children, following which Santa Claus made his appearance and distributed toys, candies, fruits of all kinds and in some cases necessaries of life. None of the children present went away without a gift. There was a large audience present and the entertainment was enjoyed immensely.

If you did not have time to get them for Christmas they are just as appropriate for New Year's gifts and we still have plenty of ladies, childrens and misses felt bedroom slippers. Thacker & Brockmann.

MONDAY OBSERVED AS CHRISTMAS DAY

Practically Every Store In City Closed, Even the Near Beer Stands—Many Baskets Found Their Way Into Homes of Needy—Special Services At Churches Sunday.

Christmas falling on Sunday this year, Monday was observed in Greensboro as Christmas Day. Practically every store in the city was closed, the merchants allowing their clerks to enjoy the occasion in the right spirit. Even the near beer saloons closed for the day and to this voluntary action on the part of the proprietors the absence of much drunkenness is largely responsible. Of course, there were several people under the influence of whiskey, but there were none as compared to what there would have been had the near beer joints been open.

The day was calm and the utmost quiet prevailed. For the most part the people remained at home until after dinner, when large numbers took a stroll through the principal streets of the city. The day had every appearance of Sunday, barring the fact that there were no religious services.

The needy were not forgotten and many a well filled basket found its way into homes whose inmates were unable to provide more than the necessaries of life. In the midst of the joyousness of the occasion none were forgotten and if there were any in the city who did not have a better dinner than usual it was because the circumstances were not known.

Sunday at all the churches the sermons and music were appropriate to the occasion, large audiences being present at each of the churches.

Taken all in all the occasion seemed to have been enjoyed by everyone more than is usually the case.

There were but few arrests, and these were for minor offenses. Only six drunks were arrested from Saturday morning until last night. There were several other cases in which liquor figured, however, but the defendants could not be called drunk at the time the offenses were committed.

SUNSHINE BEATS DRUGS

Doctor Uses "Santa" Cure on Two Little Wistful Patients.

Titusville, N. J., Dec. 27.—Dr. George Butler probably saved two lives by impersonanting Santa Claus, and believes the two little ones would have died had sunshine not been brought into their lives. Mamie Swann, 7 years old, daughter of poor parents, had been ailing for a long time. When the physician visited her Saturday morning she asked him how far away was Christmas. She began to cry, saying that she had never been given things by Santa Claus like others.

Dr. Butler asked her the things she desired, told her not to worry, and that Kris Kringle would pay her a visit. He obtained a Santa Claus costume and visited the sick room with everything the little patient had desired. Instantly she seemed to improve.

Dr. Butler had another bag of toys for Henry Chester, 6 years old, whose parents are extremely poor. The boy has been ill for three months, but he cried out in delight when he saw Santa coming into the room.

Dr. Butler says that he visited both patients two hours later and found both on the road to recovery.

WEDDING BELLS RING MERRILY

ManyCouplesAssume Marriage Vows.

Register of Deeds Does "Rushing" Business—A Hundred and Fourteen Licenses Issued So Far In December—Last Year's Record Broken—Pretty Church Wedding At Zion's Chapel Last Evening—Other Weddings.

The wedding bells have been ringing merrily during the past week and Register Rankin and Deputy Jones have been overworked to issue the marriage licenses as fast as called for. During the 27 days of December 114 licenses were issued, beating the record for the entire month of last December by seven. It is believed that the total for the month will reach 125. The licenses have not yet been returned, or the majority have not, and until this is done there is no way of telling whether the entire number secured were used during the holidays or not.

Below are some of the weddings that have occurred in the city this week:

Holder—Terrell.

Zion's Chapel, south of Glenwood, was the scene of a beautiful wedding last night at 8 o'clock when Miss Cora Belle Terrell became the bride of Mr. Clem McKinley Holder, the ceremony being performed by the pastor of the church. A large number of friends of the contracting parties were present to witness the ceremony.

The bridal party entered to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, rendered by Mrs. B. F. Barefoot at the organ. Prior to the ceremony Miss Lena Fink sang "Because," and "Wreath of Daisies."

The ushers, Messrs. Carl Davis and Robert Walker, entered first, being followed by the groomsmen, Messrs. William Bowman, Sherwood Holder, Arthur Wilson and Charlie Whittemore. The bridesmaids, Misses Mamie Causey, Dora Hall, Eva Snider and Ada Bowman, came next, wearing pink and blue creations, being followed by the candle bearers, little Misses Eula Terrell, Lillian Zink, Ellsworth Barefoot, Edith Mullican. Then came the bride, accompanied by her sister and maid of honor, Miss Sophia Green Terrell. She wore white satin with silver trimmings and her veil was caught with lilies of the valley. She carried a bouquet of Bride roses and ferns. The maid of honor was gowned in blue messaline satin with gold trimmings, her bouquet being of white carnations. The groom came down the right aisle, attended by his best man, Mr. June Bowman, and met the bride in front of the altar.

Following the ceremony an informal reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Terrell.

Mrs. Holder is a beautiful young lady and has many friends in the city and county. The groom is a promising young man, being a foreman with Seidenberg & Co. The couple received a number of beautiful presents.

Brown—Hudson.

Mr. James A. Brown and Miss Lois Anna Hudson were united in marriage Sunday morning at the home of Rev. E Reece, who performed the ceremony. After their return from a brief trip they will be at home at Pomona, where Mr. Brown is employed as foreman of a department of the Pomona cotton mill.

Goldsmith—Rosenzweig.

Mr. A. Goldsmith and Miss Grieda Rosenzweig, of Mt. Airy, were married here Monday afternoon by Rabbi Mendelsohn, o fthe Jewish synagogue here.

Gibson—Williams.

Yesterday morning in the parlor of the Clegg Hotel Mr. Howard L. Gibson and Miss Bright Williams were united in marriage by Rev. C. E. Hodgin. Both parties came to Greensboro from a point north of Madison. The ceremony was witnessed by a few friends who accompanied the couple to Greensboro, the party consisting of the bride and groom, three brothers of the groom, and two lady friends. The couple were handsome young people aged respectively 19 and 27, as fresh and rosy-cheeked as the peaches in their fathers' mountain orchard.

Strunks—Fox.

Mr. Shube A. Strunks and Miss Emma A. Fox were united in marriage Saturday night at the residence on Whittington street, Squire Mitchell officiating. Both are residents of Greensboro.

MR. TATE WEDS MISS WEATHERLY

Impressive Ceremony At First Presbyterian Church Last Evening—Rev. Melton Clark Officiated—Mr. and Mrs. Tate Off on Tour—Will Reside In Charleston, W. Va.

Last evening at 6 o'clock the First Presbyterian church was the scene of a beautiful wedding when Miss Cordye May Weatherly became the bride of Mr. Thomas Whitehead Tate. The ceremony was performed by the bride's pastor, Rev. Melton Clark, in the presence of a large assemblage of friends of the young couple.

The church had been appropriately decorated with palms, ferns, Southern smilax and potted plants, artistically arranged about the altar where the vows were assumed.

Prof. Claude Robeson at the organ rendered a delightful musical program prior to the ceremony. Mrs. Fred Sparger sang in a charming way that famous song "Because" and Shubert's Serenade. The bridal party entered to the strains from the Bridal Chorus from Lohengrin, while Mendelssohn's Wedding March was played as the party left the church.

Rev. Melton Clark was the first to enter, coming from his study. The ushers, Messrs. J. N. Davis and Guy Hinshaw, of Winston, Joe Westbrook and R. A. Sills, came down opposite aisles in single file and crossed in front of the minister. Next came the bridesmaids, also in single file. They were Miss Mary Callum, in pink messaline with pearl trimmings; Miss Agnes Martin, in pink messaline with pearl trimmings; Miss Mary McAdoo, in pink Persian silk with white chiffon and pearl trimmings; Miss Margaret Wharton, in pink Persian silk with white chiffon and pearl trimmings. Each carried a bouquet of pink carnations caught with tulle ribbon. Down the right aisle came the maid of honor, Miss Mary Fry, wearing blue messaline, trimmed with brocaded chiffon, and pearl ornaments and carrying a bouquet of Kilarney roses, tied with pink ribbon.

As the groom, accompanied by his best man, Mr. F. D. Williams, of Fayetteville, entered from the pastor's study, the bride entered by the right aisle, leaning on the arm of her father, who gave her away. She wore a beautiful creation of white ivey satin, cut en traine, trimmed with embroidered chiffon and pearls. Her veil was caught to her brow with a wreath of orange blossoms. On her arm she carried a shower bouquet of Bride roses and lilies of the valley. The bride and groom met in front of the waiting minister and as the vows were assumed, the beautiful ring ceremony of the Presbyterian church being used, Prof. Robeson softly rendered "Angel's Serenade." The bridal party left by way of the right aisle.

Following the ceremony the members of the bridal party went to the home of the bride's parents, Eugene street, where an informal reception was held, pending the arrival of No. 38, on which Mr. and Mrs. Tate traveled to Washington and other cities on a bridal trip.

After January 5, Mr. and Mrs. Tate will be at home in Charleston, W. Va.

Mrs. Tate is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Weatherly, 401 Eugene street, and comes from one of the oldest families in the state. She is a charming young lady and by her sweet disposition has won the love and admiration of a very large circle of friends. The groom is a son of the late Dr. R. W. Tate, who formerly resided in this city. He holds an important position with Armour & Co., with headquarters at Charleston, W. Va. The large collection of useful and handsome gifts attest the popularity of this young couple.

Out of Town Guests.

Among the out of town guests here for the wedding were Mrs. R. W. Tate, mother of the groom, of Chadbourne, N. C.; Mr. F. D. Williams, Fayetteville; Mr. J. N. Davis, Mr. Guy Hinshaw, Miss Ethel Patterson and Mrs. Nannie Caldwell, Winston-Salem; Mrs. Jas. M. Vaughan and son, Master Tom, of Madison; Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Overman, High Point; Mrs. W. F. Davidson, Black Mountain; Dr. C. S. Tate, Ramseur; Mrs. Mary Payne, Madison.

SANER METHODS OF CELEBRATING

Desired by The Citizens of Raleigh.

Want Authorities to Put End To Promiscuous "Cooner" Method Largely In Vogue—Mr. Frank Thompson Hit on Head With Rock—Election In Halifax on January Tenth—Charters Issued.

Raleigh, Dec. 27.—Mr. Frank Thompson, the well known A. & M. baseball and football player and now engaged in the cotton mill business, is recovering nicely from the severe blow on the back of his head received Sunday night while in an automobile with some friends going up Fayetteville street. A number of young men who were drinking attempted to get in the machine in spite of the protest of the occupants and a conflict followed in which one of the boys trying to get in threw a rock that struck Thompson on the back of his head. He was taken unconscious, to Rex hospital. However, he is able to be out now. There is to be no prosecution of the young man who threw the rock.

There are a good many people in Raleigh who are anxious to have an end put to the promiscuous "cooner" method of celebrating Christmas that they say has gone wild in Raleigh. These squads come to be in many instances lawless marauders committing the most outrageous things under the guise of "celebrating." They insist that the Raleigh authorities need to see to it for the future that there are more "sane" methods of celebrating.

Last night during the absence of the members of the family the residence of Mr. Shepherd, 612 West North street, was entered by a thief and a quantity of jewelry and other valuables taken. There are clues that are expected to lead to an arrest very soon.

January 10 there is to be, in compliance with an order from Governor Kitchin, an election in Halifax county to name a successor to the late Rev. N. B. Stainback, who died after his election as legislator in the November election.

R. S. McCoin, of Henderson, having resigned as a member of the board of directors for the State Hospital for the Insane at Raleigh Governor Kitchin commissions Dr. E. G. Moore, of Elm City. Dr. Moore was a director for the Eastern Hospital at Goldsboro and resigns that directorship to take that for the Raleigh hospital.

The Lenoir Chair Manufacturing Co., of Lenoir, Caldwell county, received a charter today with $35,000 capital by S. S. Jessup, W. A. Shell and others. There is also a charter for the J. T. Johns Co., of Johns Station, capital $25,000 by J. T. Johns and others for mercantile business. The J. C. Pierce Printing Co., of Guilford county, increases capital to $50,000.

CAPITAL STOCK INCREASED

The J. C. Pierce Printing Co. Have Capital of $50,000—New Machinery—New Department.

The secretary of state yesterday amended the charter of the J. C. Pierce Printing Company, the authorized capital stock being increased to $50,000.

The purpose of the company is to handle a general line of office supplies and appliances, in connection with the job printing department and the manufacture of rubber stamps.

This company was chartered about ten years ago with a capital stock of $2,000, but on account of a constantly increasing business, an amendment and increased capital stock have been rendered necessary. Already a cylinder press has been installed, and their machinery is of the most improved make, which will enable them to do a larger class of printing, such as catalogs, booklets, etc.

The success of the J. C. Pierce Printing Company would seem to indicate that Greensboro is a good printing town, there being eight job offices in the city which seem to have all the work they can handle.

The woman who complains that nobody loves her evidently forgets herself.

HOW TO CURE RHEUMATISM

It Is An Internal Disease And Requires An Internal Remedy.

The cause of rheumatism and kindred diseases is an excess of uric acid in the blood. To cure this terrible disease this acid must be expelled and the system so regulated that no more acid will be formed in excessive quantities. Rheumatism is an internal disease and requires an internal remedy. RUBBING with Oils and Liniments WILL NOT CURE, affords only temporary relief at best, causes you to delay the proper treatment, and allows the malady to get a firmer hold on you. Liniments may ease the pain, but they will no more cure Rheumatism than paint will change the fiber of rotten wood.

Science has at last discovered a perfect and complete cure, which is called Rheumacide. Tested in hundreds of cases, it has effected the most marvelous cures; we believe it will cure you. Rheumacide gets at the joints from the inside, sweeps the poisons out of the system, tones up the stomach, regulates the liver and kidneys and makes you well all over. PANTALOONS FOR WOMEN.

Petticoat and Hobble Skirt Is Doomed, Says Dame Fashion.

New York World.

Latest fashion note: The petticoat is doomed. Exit hobble. Enter pantaloons.

The hobble skirt has tottered to its fall and must make way for the next step in skirt fashion. From Paris comes the dictum that its successor is to be an exact reproduction of the dress worn by Turkish women minus—well, minus the veil.

That means pantaloons. Of course they wil be fashioned as charmingly as possible and will be fastened close to the ankles, but there is one universal truth that cannot die. It is this: Call them by any name you may. Pants is Pants.

The new decree means, Mr. Husband, that no longer will you have your clothes closet to yourself. You will have to share all those trousers hangers after this.

But it had to come. With woman smoking in public, she positively had to find a costume that would carry the essential parphernalia of cigarette package, match box, etc. Further, with women clamoring for the ballot, what more natural than that they should demand the garment that enables its wearer to swagger up to the polls?

The hobble skirt has been a great stumbling block to suffragism. Nothing has so obstructed woman's progress as that Pitt-Sing garb. Even the most enthusiastic suffragette would not try to chase Asquith's cab in a hobble skirt.

A great field for economy is opened. Think of the married man with half a dozen suffragist daughters! He can surely get his trousers pressed at reduced rates if he can guarantee that the tailor will get a half-dozen pairs a day to press. And suppose popper some day finds himself short of trousers. What a bountiful supply to draw on!

There is one great drawback to the plan, however. It rings the curfew on all rainy day and windy day jokes and relieves the Flatiron Building of one of its greatest assets.

Ends Winter's Troubles.

WANTED OATS; GETS FIVE THOUSAND CATS.

Substitution of Wrong Letter in Advertisement Causes Trouble.

Neligh, Neb., Dec. 26.—The substitution of a lower case letter "c" for the letter "o" in an advertisement in the Sioux City, Omaha and local newspapers has caused John C. Trothers, a grain merchant here, all kinds of trouble.

Trothers wishing to replenish his supply of oats, concluded to advertise. Writing his advertisement on a typewriter, he manifolded it and sent copies to the newspapers as follows:

"Wanted—Delivered on track at Neligh 10,000 bushels of cats. Will pay highest market price."

Not noticing the error he awaited results which came sooner than he expected. Within a week cats of all kinds and descriptions commenced to arrive consigned to Trothers. Some were sent prepaid and others collect. They came form the East, from the West, the North western road became alarmed. He was Northwestern road became alarmed. He being swamped by cats and wired the superintendent for instructions. That official, not knowing what else to do, wired back:

"Release all cats not accepted."

Still cats continued to arrive, and still Trothers refused to accept the felines, but his troubles did not end there. Boys about town had learned that he was in the market for cats. They commenced to catch the strays and take them to his place of business. Some days last week he refused as many as 500 cats brought in by boys and three and four times as many coming by rail.

It is estimated that 5,000 cats have been shipped into Neligh, and the end is not yet. They are becoming a nuisance, and the City Council is about to take action and order a slaughter of the animals.

Worse than an alarm of fire at night is the metallic cough of croup, bringing dread to the household. Careful mothers keep Foley's Honey and Tar in the house and give it at the first sign of danger. It contains no opiates. Howard Gardner.

Woman's Friend

Nearly all women suffer at times from female ailments. Some women suffer more acutely and more constantly than others. But whether you have little pain or whether you suffer intensely, you should take Wine of Cardui and get relief.

Cardui is a safe, natural medicine, for women, prepared scientifically from harmless vegetable ingredients. It acts easily on the female organs and gives strength and tone to the whole system.

TAKE CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

Mrs. Verna Wallace, of Sanger, Tex., tried Cardui. She writes: "Cardui has done more for me than I can describe. Last spring I was taken with female inflammation and consulted a doctor, but to no avail, so I took Cardui, and inside of three days, I was able to do my housework. Since then my trouble has never returned." Try it.

The Famous Rayo

Gives the Best Light at Any Price

When you pay more than the Rayo price for a lamp, you are paying for extra decorations that cannot add to the quality of the light. You can't pay for a better light, because there is none. An oil light has the least effect on the human eye, and the Rayo Lamp is the best oil lamp made, though low in price. You can pay $5, $10, or $20 for some other lamp, and although you get a more costly lamp, you can't get a better light than the white, mellow, diffused, unflickering light of the low-priced Rayo.

Has a strong, durable shade-holder. This season's burner adds to the strength and appearance. Made of solid brass, nickeled, and easily polished.

STAR GEM OF CEYLON.

The Asteria Brought Health and Fortune to Its Wearer.

Familiar to some of the ancient writers and credited with supernatural powers, the asteria, or star gem, was highly valued for the benefits supposed to be conferred on the wearer. Its bright six rayed star, ever changing and shifting with every play of light and especially shooting out its flames in the direct sunlight, would seem to be something more than an ordinary crystal, and to the superstitious mind it could readily be believed to embody some tutelar spirit.

The particular virtue attributed to this gem was the conferring upon the wearer of "health and good fortune" when worn as an amulet, and to those fortunate to be born in the month of April, with which the stone was associated or represented, the wearer was insured from all evil.

The star stone is found principally in Ceylon, invariably in soil peculiar to rubies and sapphires. Indeed, it is composed of the same constituent "corundum," its chatoyant, or star rays, being caused by the pressure of what the natives call "silk." It is found in many different colors, from pale blue, pink and white to deep dark blue, ruby and purple. The blue are termed sapphire stars, the red ruby stars. It is always cut en cabochon, the star dividing into six rays at the apex. It is next in hardness to the diamond.

MARITIME EXPRESSIONS.

Used In a Metaphorical Sense They Are Quite Common.

Maritime expressions used metaphorically are, in fact, very common. We say a couple are "spliced," a young man is the "mainstay" of his family, an intruder "puts his oar in," a man is "hard up," sometimes "taken aback" or has "the wind taken out of his sails," a toper is "slewed," a loafer "spins a yarn," sometimes "tries the other tack," and a ruler "steers the ship of state" through troublesome times.

This last metaphor is extremely ancient, by the way. Horace refers to Rome as a ship at sea, and Plutarch says the Delphic oracle referred to Athens in the same way. A Tamil saying embodies a like metaphor, "The soul is the ship, reason is the helm, the oars are the soul's thoughts, and truth is the port." An old collection of English proverbs contains this one: "The tongue is the rudder of our ship." A Malay maxim says, "The boat which is swamped at sea may be bailed out, but the shipwreck of the affections is final."

Aristophanes, Plautus and others use an expression which comes down to us as an English saw, "To row one way and look another." An old English proverb (614) was, "It is not good to have an oar in every one's boat."

Saved From Awful Death.

How an appalling calamity in his family was prevented is told by A. D. McDonald, of Fayetteville, N. C. R. F. D. No. 8. "My sister had consumption," he writes, "she was very thin and pale, had no appetitie and seemed to grow weaker every day, as all remedies failed, till Dr. King's New Discovery was tried, and so completely cured her, that she has not been troubled with a cough since. Its the best medicine I ever saw or heard of." For coughs, colds, lagrippe, asthma, croup, hemorrhage-all bronchial troubles, it has no equal, 50c, $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by Fariss-Klutz Drug Co.

Hundreds of lawyers are said to be candidates for the Federal judgeships yet to be filled by President Taft. It would be interesting to know how many of these candidates are Democrats.

The president of the board of education in Washington City is named Oyster. No offense to the luscious bivalve intended, but we wouldn't be named Oyster unless there were an absolute dearth of aliases.

Jack London, in an article in the Forum, says that war is passing, that it is safer to be a soldier than a workingman. It may be that the reason some men's voices are so persistently for war is that like Jack London they have discovered what is the matter with war.

William F. Sheehan, of New York City, is making a desperate effort to have the Democrats of the New York Legislature agree on him as Chauncey M. Depew's successor in the United States Senate. It's a fine thing that Old Man Chauncey is to be succeeded, but the Democrats ought certainly to improve on him a little bit.

The graduating class of Washington Irving High School in New York City will on their graduation day wear dollar dresses. Not a dollar a yard, but a dollar a dress. Many of these girls could have any sort of dress they chose, but some of them are poor and partly for their sakes and partly for a protest against the general craze for expensive dressing the wealthy girls will join with the poor ones in wearing inexpensive dresses on their graduation day. They are sensible young women—a credit to the sex.

BEEFSTEAKS AND THE POOR.

We have a profound admiration for "practical men," barring the kind that Col. Roosevelt was talking about when he wrote a railroad president once and said "You and I are practical men."

A practical man is one who doesn't stop at pointing out a misfortune, but goes ahead and suggests a remedy. Dr. Woods Hutchinson is such a man.

Discussing the giving of Christmas presents, he commended the giving of a turkey to the poor once a year. He declared that this was far better than cod liver oil, but it was not enough. "What the poor need," he insists, "is a beefsteak every day."

Now that gets the proposition right down to brass tacks as the old saying goes. A beefsteak every day for every member of every poor family! It is a gigantic proposition.

The poor don't get the number of beefsteaks that they are entitled to as a matter of benevolence; people generally are not unselfish enough in their charities and they not infrequently give unwisely. The call is for larger and wiser giving.

The poor don't get the number of beefsteaks that they are entitled to as a matter of justice, that is if the prevailing opinion that the price of beef is artifically fixed is correct.

Congress should take the tariff off beef and do it quickly. There should be a vast increase of stock-raising. The beef barons should become Christianized and be content with modest profits. Everywhere there should be co-operation to the end that the millions of this great country shall have the nourishment needed to keep off disease.

A ROMANTIC WEDDING.

Virginia Young Woman Travels To Greensboro To Meet Future Husband.

Yesterday morning at 11 o'clock there culminated what has proven to be a most romantic courtship when 'Squire Giles T. Glascock united in marriage Mr. R. E. McGee, of this city, and Miss Laura Clark, of Glade Springs, Va. Neither bride nor groom could read or write and neither had seen the other until a few hours before the hour set for the marriage.

Some months ago the groom advertised in a paper for a wife and the young lady who became his bride answered it. Through the assistance of friends who wrote the letters and also read them the couple conducted a correspondence courtship which resulted in the prospective groom purchasing a ticket for his prospective bride, or rather he ascertained the price of a ticket and telegraphed it to the agent at Glade Springs.

Miss Clark left her home on last Friday, but through missing connections did not reach the city until Monday night. Yesterday morning after shaking hands, kissing and getting acquainted personally they went to the office of the register of deeds, accompanied by friends who procured the necessary papers. It only took a few minutes to drive down town and secure the services of 'Squire Glascock. The ceremony was performed on South Elm street in front of a livery stable, there being several hundred of the curious grouped around to hear the marriage vows assumed. Mr. and Mr McGee will make their home in this city.

WON THE SHOES.

Mrs. A. L. Henley Sends Coble & Mebane Best Criticism of Advertisement.

Mrs. A. L. Henley, 411 South Eugene street, is the winner of the pair of shoes offered by Coble & Mebane to the person writing the best criticism of advertisements of Craddock-Terry Shoes, these ads having appeared in the Friday issues of The Telegram for some weeks prior to Christmas.

The judges met Saturday and went over the large list of criticisms sent in by readers of The Telegram's advertising columns and finally decided that Mrs. Henley's criticism was the best. The announcement was to have been made on Sunday, but on account of the heavy business this was overlooked. The shoes can be gotten by Mrs. Henley at any time, she having the pick of any shoe carried by Messrs. Coble & Mebane.

In her criticism Mrs. Henley points out the too frequent mistake of repetition, thereby taking up space that could be used to advantage in displaying more important portions of the ad. Summing up Mrs. Henley says that the three important points to be considered in ad writing are: Brevity, sincerity and attractiveness.

North Carolina Day At the A. & M.

North Carolina Day was observed last Friday at the A. & M. College by a very interesting program. All in attendance were interested and instructed. At the close of the program, President Dudley appointed a faculty committee to prepare a special North Carolina Day program for 1911. An invitation will be extended to the noted negro historian, B. A. Johnson, to deliver an address, and biographical sketches of such remarkable North Carolina negro characters as John Chavis, Henry Evans and Joseph C. Price will be read. Efforts will be made to make the North Carolina Day at the A. & M. College in 1911 a great state day for the negroes of North Carolina.

WATER COST HIM DEAR.

Negro Pays One Dollar For Pint Bottle of Fluid.

Monday a negro with a dry and parched throat began to skirmish around in quest of that fluid that inebriates just as surely as it moistens. In the midst of his meanderings around the back streets he ran across another wanderer, who, it appears, was searching for "suckers." He at once informed the individual of the parched throat where he could get a pint of the desired fluid, the price being $1. The amount was handed over without question and darkey No. 2 disappeared. But he "came back" and without parley turned over a pint bottle filled with what appeared to be just what darkey No. 1 was hankering after. He grabbed the bottle and disappeared around a convenient corner just as darkey No. 2 vanished around an opposite corner.

For the first vacant lot the negro dashed with his bottle and as soon as he was out of sight of humanity he uncorcked the bottle and without even taking a sniff turned it up. Alas, Alas! 'Twas water, simply water. Hastily corking his bottle the would be drinker made a bee line for the police station and wanted an instanter capias issued for the negro that had played such a trick on him. However, there is no law against a man selling good water even at $1 per pint if the other man is willing to pay the price, and in this case both buyer and seller were better off; one by $1 and the other by being minus a pint of mean liquor.

Their Money Stolen.

Saturday night someone entered the room of Charles Gilbreath and Mr. Brooks, Walker avenue, and relieved their trouser pockets of about $45. When they retired for the night they left their pants lying on chairs, but when they awoke Sunday morning the pants were lying in the floor with the pockets turned inside out. The front door of the boarding place was not securely fastened and the young men probably forgot to fasten the door of their room. There is no clue as to the thief.

Many a man is crusty because that's the way he was bred.

THIEVES VISIT HORWITZ.

Negroes Who Escaped From Work House Suspected of Relieving Merchant of Portion of His Stock.

A. Horwitz, who runs a small department store on East Washington street, seems to be a very much over-"worked" merchant. Some two or three weeks ago a negro named John Jackson was convicted of larceny and sentenced to the work house for breaking into Horwitz's store.

Yesterday morning report of a robbery of the same establishment was left on the desk at police headquarters. When an officer arrived and found the note he at once set about getting some clew to the affair. It happened that on Monday night several boys escaped from the work house by prizing a bar off a window and by the use of a mattox working their way under the wire fence to freedom. The same John Jackson who entered a few weeks ago was of the number escaping, and it is thought by the police that this crowd, led by Jackson, are the negroes who did the "job" on Monday night; if so, there is a prospect of catching at least a few of them, as the goods, the quantity of which was immense, will more than likely be offered for sale in some near-by market; and with officers on the lookout and the public cognizant of the theft, the boys will have to be shrewd much beyond their years, if they succeed long in escaping detection and capture.

The Monday night entrance was made by prizing up a window sash at the rear of the store, displacing two iron bars, and bursting the wooden shutters inside. The cash drawer was broken into, but fortunately there was only 50 cents left in the drawer for them. There was found missing: a bolt of clotoh, overshoes, two coats, sweaters, several pairs of pants, about twenty pairs of shoes, underwear and overcoat, several watches and perhaps much more not accounted for.

Horwitz seems to be very much worried. He says his store could hardly have been more securely fastened, when he had both shutters and iron bars, beside having the windows fastened down. There was almost enough merchandise taken to fill a box-car, and he does not see how they got away with it, unless there was quite a number of them in the company.

The names of the negroes escaping from the work house, and in all probability those who ssucceeded in materially diminishing Horwitz's stock, are John Jackson, Will Wilson, D. E. Pritchett, Munday Scales and Bert Johnson.

BONILLA FOR PRESIDENT

Rumored That Uncle Sam Favors Him As Chief Executive of Honduras.

New Orleans, Dec. 27.—That the Davila administration in Honduras believes the United States government wants to see Manuel Bonilla president of Honduras is the belief of many of the Davila supporters in Central American circles here.

The Times-Democrat this morning says:

"For some time past it has been remarked that the Spanish-American population of New Orleans has been increasing rapidly. Every ship arriving within the last few weeks has brought at leost two of the olive-complexioned natives, and it is the belief now that New Orleans is becoming a revolutionist center for at least five countries.

"The Cuban revolutionists arrived last week and it is asserted are making preparations for the starting of an expedition for some gulf port. They are emboldened by the success of the Bonilla faction in starting the Hornet for Cape Gracias, but it is said that they are working under different conditions:

"A prominent Cuban who was here yesterday said:

"'I am sorry to see those fellows here plan a revolution. Revolutions are not destined at any time in Cuba, and less now than at any other time. We know that the United States has secret service men at all the Southern and gulf ports and we feel sure that any attempt will be promptly nipped in the bud. We do not care for this except we fear that the president will conclude that there is no use troubling with Cuba any longer.

"'If there is another intervention we fear that Cuba will never be an independent state. That is why the conservative Cubans discourage anything like revolutionary plans.'

"Those in touch with the situation said last night, however, that the revolutionary plotters mean to carry their attempt as far as possible. It is known that they appealed to certain local persons for assistance and were refused because of the known hostility of the United States to any such expedition.

"It is now believed that this is not the case with the Honduras plan. Charges are made by friends of President Davila here that Gen. Bonilla has the moral support of persons who are influential at Washington. Both sides are awaiting with expectancy the news of the whereabouts of the Hornet."

THE VEILED PROPHET.

He Was the Most Noted Impostor of the Middle Ages.

The celebrated "Veiled Prophet" of history was a Moslem fanatic whose real name was Haken Ibn Hashem. He was born about the middle of the eighth century and became the most noted impostor of the middle ages. He pretended that he was an embodiment of the spirit of the "living God" and, being very proficient in juggiery (which the ignorant mistook for the power to work miracles), soon drew an immense number of followers around him. He always wore a gold mask, claiming that he did so to protect the mortals of this earth, who, he said, could not look upon his face and live.

At last, after thousands had quitted the city and even left the employ of the Caliph al Mohdi to join the fanatical movement, an army was sent against the "Veiled Prophet," forcing him to flee for safety to the castle at Keh, north of the Oxus. Finally, when ultimate defeat was certain, the prophet killed and burned his whole family and then threw himself into the flames, being entirely consumed, except his hair, which was kept in a museum at Bagdad until the time of the crusades. He promised his faithful followers that he would reappear to them in the future dressed in white and riding a white horse.

You Must Read This if You Want the Benefit.

J. W. Greer, Greenwood, La., suffered with a severe case of lumbago. "The pains were so intense I was forced to hypodermic injections for relief. These attacks started with a pain in the small of my back which gradually became fairly paralyzing. My attention was attracted to Foley's Kidney Remedy and I am glad to say after using this wonderful medicine I am no longer bothered in any way by my old enemy lumbago.' Howard Gardner.

Medical Care of School Children.
Baltimore Post.

The results of the first year during which children of the public elementary school of England and Wales have been subjected to systematic medical inspection, have just been published. Of these nearly 6,000,000 pupils, about 10 per cent. are reported as suffering from defective sight, 4 per cent from defective hearing, 1 per cent from tuberculosis and heart disease, 8 per cent from obstructions to proper breathing, and 30 per cent from extensive and injurious decay of the teeth. These figures are accepted in the report as indicating a large degree of suffering, incapacity and inefficiency. Perhaps the most important, as well as most easily preventable evil is prevalence of disease of the teeth. It is now well established that defective mastication is a serious hindrance to due nutrition and hence to the attainment of normal physical development. Home and school are once more blamed for failure to give the children in them a knowledge of things of the highest importance to their welfare. The difficulty is greatest in the towns, with their inseparable association of poverty with dirt.

Take Care!

Remember that when your kidneys are affected your life is in danger. M. Mayer, Rochester, N. Y., says: "My trouble started with a sharp shooting pain over my back which grew worse daily I felt sluggish and tired, my kidney action was irregular and infrequent. I started using Foley's Kidney Pills. Each dose seemed to put new life and strength into me, and now I am completely cured and feel better and stronger than for years." Howard Gardner.

Miss Lillian Whiting, of Wellesley Coilege Observatory, says that after death we shall continue to eat, walk, talk and ride in automobiles.

Banks On Sure Thing Now.

"I'll never be without Dr. King's New Life Pills again," writes A. Schingeck, 647 Elm St., Buffalo, N. Y. "They cured me of chronic constipation when all others failed." Unequaled for Biliousness, Jaundice, Indigestion, Headache, Chills, Malaria and Debility. 25c. at Fariss-Klutz Drug Co.

Ex-Senator Clark, of Montana, has completed the $7,000,000 mansion upon which he pays taxes of $200 a day to New York City.

Foley's Kidney Pills are tonic in action, quick in results, and restore the natural action of the kidneys and bladder. They correct irregularities. Howard Gardner.

INFLAMED KIDNEYS

Medical writers declare it incurable after the sixth month whether albumenous or not.

The average man prefers to think of it as "kidney trouble" and lets it go but the census shows this appalling fact—out of 63,000 deaths from kidney trouble the last census year over nine-tenths of them (58,000) took the form called "Bright's Disease" although it is quite probable that nine-tenths of these up to the last moment thought of it as and called it "kidney trouble" when as a matter of fact the only possible hope laid through a specific for Bright's Disease.

There never was one until Fulton worked out his Renal emollient (Fulton's Renal Compound.)

Since then inflammation of the kidneys whether albumenous or not or whether called "kidney trouble" or "Bright's Disease" or whether six months or six years old commonly yields.

If you have had kidney trouble over six months no matter what you call it it is the only hope. Efficiency 87 per cent where patients do not wait until bedridden although some of them recover. It can be had in Greensboro at the Fariss-Klutz Drug Co.

SHE BEAT HIM AT LAW, THEN WON HIS HEART.

Miss Kuntzler Defeated Koppleman So Captivatingly That Now They're Wed.

New York World.

Miss Esther Kuntzler, a lawyer, of No. 158 Rivington street, was married to Haris Koppleman, a lawyer, of No. 302 Broadway, yesterday afternoon at Tabernacle of the Congregation Ohab Zedek.

This legal romance had its beginning in the Second District Municipal Court on Madison street one day when Miss Kuntzler and Koppleman faced each other as the opposing counsel in a case. There was a long legal argument, in which Miss Kuntzler was so impressed by the courtesy of her adversary, and Koppleman so captivated by the charms and learning of his opponent, that the acquaintance was continued after court was adjourned. In spite of the fact that Miss Kuntzler won her case, Koppleman carried no grudge, and as Miss Kuntzler did not permit herself to crow over her triumph the interest in legal matters soon paved the way to an interest in each other.

Miss Kuntzler has been the partner of her father, Felix Kuntzler, but it was said at her home yesterday that it was probable that this firm would be dissolved for the formation of the new Koppleman & Koppleman.

Kongo Tattooing.

In the Kongo colonies of Belgium both men and women are tattooed according to their status in society. A woman of high caste will have a design not unlike a zouave jacket worked upon her back, and it would seem that the native is as content with this mode of covering as if it were a substitute for clothing. By injecting the juice of certain herbs the scars left by the tattooing process retain a swollen appearance, giving the effect of bas-relief work. The thorns of the acacia are generally used as a needle, while a certain black clay is used as a coloring medium.

Was there ever a better example of the witty and concise form of expression than the answer of the grim man who, when asked about the character of a neighbor, sententiously replied:

The South's Wonderful Growth.

Leslie's Mouthly.

The south no longer carries all its eggs in one basket. Corn, rice and fruits of the various sorts are being raised there to an extent undreamed of half a dozen years ago. Beside the cotton plantation the cotton mill is being erected. Although Massachusetts still excels in the manufacture of the finer grades of cotton fabrics, the entire mill consumption of cotton now is as great in the South as it is in the North. Immigrants from Europe are at last beginning to turn toward the South. Northern settlers and capital are, more and more every year, drifting toward the States below the Potomac and the Ohio. The current of farmers seeking cheap lands, which has been crossing into Canada in large volume in the past few years, is moving toward Oklahoma, Texas, Louisiana and the more easterly States along the Gulf coast now. De Bew, the South's statistician and publicist of long ago, who predicted an immense expansion for his region as a result of the slavery incubus, ought to have lived a century later. Some choice prizes—industrial, social and political—are to be won by the South in the coming time.

Virtue is, like health, the harmony of the whole man.—Carlyle.

UNIQUE ENTERTAINMENT.

First Baptist Sunday School Have Santa Come Down Chimney.

Last night at the First Baptist church an immense audience greeted Santa Claus. There was erected on a large platform a brick house. Santa arrived, stopped his sleigh at the rear of the building, went up stairs with his pack, and after making his bow from the balcony, proceeded to descend the chimney. He stepped through the doorway of the house and announced to the children that he had brought from the frozen north many good things which he would be delighted to hand to them if they would come forward. They went, about 200 of them, ranging in age from four to sixteen years of age.

There was a rousing chorus of children from the primary department, in which they sang forth lustily the fact that Christmas had come again and that the children's hearts were glad. Then there was a recitation by little Myrtle Matthews, and a book play, written by Miss Nellie Rowe for "Little Jack Horner," "Miss Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch," "An Old Fashioned Girl." "Uncle Remus," and "The Little Woman." The play was very interesting and amusing and reflected much credit on the genius of Miss Rowe, especially since it was so well rendered by the children having part in it. Next came a fine chorus by all the younger boys and girls; the program ending with a charming little speech by Pauline Brady. Never before had the children been so well trained for their parts, much of the cerdit being due to the ability and tact of Miss Cordye Olive and associates.

Provisions were brought in to make up a box for the orphanage and a collection was taken. The value of the donations is not known, but it is said that the largest box ever sent to the Orphanage at Thomasville by the Sunday school will go as a result of last evening's gifts.

The Sunday school orchestra deserve especial mention for the work they did toward enlivening the occasion with music.

DRUNKEN MAN CREATES MUCH EXCITEMENT

Runs Wife Into Waiting Room of Passenger Station, Threatening to Kill Her.

Monday a mill operative, R. A. Rooks, of Proximity, created no little excitement when he ran his wife into the closet of the ladies' waiting room at the passenger station, vowing to kill her at every step. The ladies inside parted right and left, many screaming in the excitement. Right behind the drunken-crazy man came a police officer and before he could carry out his threat the officer had caught the man, who put up a fierce struggle before he was subdued. The man had followed his wife several blocks before she took refuge in the station. But for the timely arrival of the policeman he would have probably done her bodily injury for he was so crazed with mean liquor that he did not know what he was doing. This was the most exciting event of the Christmas season.

Charged With Storebreaking.

Police Officers Hepler and Glenn last night arrested Hooks Bailey, colored, on the charge of breaking into D. Stadiem's store on Monday night. The negro was wearing a suit stolen from the store, this being identified after the arrest by Morris Stadiem as belonging to him. The store was broken in to Monday night, entrance being effected through the transom. In addition to the suit of clothes about $15 was stolen and probably other articles of clothing.
